

United Nations Development Programme (UNDP)

The United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) is the world organization of the United Nations focused on development, advocating for change and connecting countries with knowledge, experience and resources to help people live a better life. At the same time the UNDP is the responsible Agency for guiding the introduction and promotion of the Global Compact in developing countries.

Some of its main actions on RSE are:

- The World ComPact
- Growing Inclusive Markets (GIM)
- Business Call to Action (BCTA).
- Iberoamerican CSR University Network.
- Sponsorship of initiatives such as the Ecumenical Social Forum 2009.
