

Frères des Hommes (FDH)

Founded in 1965, Frères des Hommes is a French non-denominational solidarity association, independent of any political party or trade union. Faced with a political, economic and social system that generates inequality and exclusion, we have set ourselves the mission of being an actor of social transformation. In France, Frères des Hommes, a militant association, welcomes people wishing to engage in international solidarity actions and in actions contributing to social transformation. Abroad, Frères des Hommes and its partners accompany populations in situations of vulnerability to emancipate themselves through technical and civic training and to act collectively.

Creada en 1965, Frères des Hommes es una asociación francesa de solidaridad aconfesional, independiente de todo partido político y sindicato. Frente a un sistema político, económico y social que genera desigualdad y exclusión, nos hemos propuesto ser un actor de transformación social. En Francia, la asociación militante Frères des Hommes acoge a las personas que desean participar en acciones de solidaridad internacional y en acciones que contribuyan a la transformación social. En el extranjero, Frères des Hommes y sus socios acompañan a las poblaciones en situación de vulnerabilidad para que se emancipen, gracias a la formación técnica y cívica, y actúen en colectivos.
