

Municipality of Vicente Lopez

The municipality of Vicente Lopez organizes its local administration in ten secretaries on the following areas: Economic Development; Finance; Education; General secretary; Sports; Culture; Security; Government and jurisdictional affairs; Health and Human Development; Planning, Public Works and Services; and Legal and Technical. The office in charge of the CSR related issues at the municipal level is the area of Corporate Social Responsibility. The municipality works around three areas: Education, health and environment. Following these three main areas as guidelines and coordinating actions with each of the secretaries, the CSR area organizes activities at schools and senior centres inviting the whole community.
