

The Private Sector Organization of Jamaica

The Private Sector Organisation of Jamaica (PSOJ) seeks to influence national policy issues of a political, social, or economic nature. The Executive Committee, under guidance from the Council, leads this process by promoting discussions with the country's government, political directorate and the opposition. The Organisation is also in close and constant contact with the major multi-lateral and bi-lateral agencies. Its main areas of action are: promote cooperation between private sector organisations; macro economic policy framework; achievement of a lawful and just society; transparency, efficiency and accountability in the operations of the public sector; good corporate governance in the private sector.
