

Pacific Alliance

The Pacific Alliance is an initiative of regional integration comprised by Chile, Colombia, Mexico and Peru, officially established on April 28th, 2011. Its objectives are: 1) Build in a participatory and consensual way an area of deep integration to move progressively towards the free movement of goods, services, resources and people. 2) Drive further growth, development and competitiveness of the economies of its members, focused on achieving greater well-being, overcoming socioeconomic inequality and promote the social inclusion of its inhabitants. 3) Become a platform of political articulation, economic and commercial integration and projection to the world, with emphasis on the Asia-Pacific region.

Geographical level

Regional

Location

LAC

Country

Chile

Colombia

Mexico

Peru

Type of organisation

Public Institutions

Area of interest

Governance, Political Affairs

Economy and Sustainable Development

Corporate Social Responsibility

Social Affairs

Download as PDF

Web Page

<http://alianzapacifico.net/en/>

The information and content of MAPEO are the sole responsibility of the institutions involved, it does not reflect the views of the EU-LAC Foundation, its members states or the European institutions.

Download as PDF